

What's New!

for the week of September 28, 2009

It's going to be a quiet week as we end September and begin October. The first sew day of the month will be on Friday, October 2nd at Fountain Plaza in Medford. These ladies are a lot of fun and look forward to us coming each month.

I hope to ship the Snowball Express blankets next week so if you still have one you are working on, let me know.

The October calendar will be posted today so be sure and check for sew days. The first one next week will be at Tater Patch on Monday, October 5th.

The last day to RSVP for Make a Difference Day is October 10th. We can't guarantee there will be kits available for those who do not RSVP.

www.Youtube.com and blanketmaking: Did you know you can get some great quilting, crochet and knitting videos online at YouTube.com? Check it out by going to www.youtube.com and doing a video search for "quilt" or "crocheting" or "knitting" to get all the current instructional videos. You can get more specific in your search by typing in "foundation piecing tips" or "how to double crochet" or "how to machine applique". Just ask your question and see what comes up!
