

What's New!

for the week of January 4, 2010

The frenzy is behind us and I hope you all had a wonderful Christmas and New Year.

Monday is a sew day at Tater Patch and on Friday we will sew at Fountain Plaza in Medford.

Have you seen the Disney commercial on television regarding Get a Day, Give a Day? Project Linus is a participating organization and we should be able to sign up volunteers by the end of the week. For more information, please go to this link <http://www.handsonnetwork.org/disney>. We are still getting our parameters set and will let you know when everything is ready.

Your challenge blankets are due on March 31st and the theme is Down on the Farm. For more information click here:

Please rsvp for Make a Blanket Day, April 24, 2010—space is limited. The theme for Make a Blanket Day is "Go Fly a Kite."

What a blessing it has been to have the Shasta Lily Quilt Guild join us. Diana has given us several blankets and one of them just happened to be #4000. She will receive a PL t-shirt, tote bag and mug. Thanks Diana!
