

What's New!

for the week of February 1, 2010

Can you believe it is already February—what happened to January?

Monday is a sew day at Tater Patch in Merrill and Friday the ladies will be sewing at Fountain Plaza in Medford.

Sew Unique in Mt. Shasta is holding a blanket-making marathon on February 6th and 7th. They have had so much interest from their surrounding area that it should be a really great time.

Please RSVP for Make a Blanket Day, April 24, 2010—space is limited. The theme for Make a Blanket Day is "Go Fly a Kite."

Thank you to everyone sending donations for the shipping of our Haiti blankets. It's about $20.00 to ship a box of 12 blankets so any help we receive will be greatly appreciated.

I want to thank all of you for your kind words, cards and support during the loss of my mother-in-law. Her funeral is Friday so I will be out of commission most of this week.

Tip of the week: Storing Cutting Mats—if your cutting mats don't have handles, you can store them using a skirt hanger with clamps. The hanger keeps the mat warp-free and out of the way.
