

What's New!

for the week of March 8, 2010

Tuesday is a sew day at Goose Tracks in Lakeview—11:00 to ??????. I won't be going as I'm sure most of you have heard my now—I was hit by a pickup last Sunday afternoon along with my friend, Georgie Reed. Georgie is probably in more pain than I am because she is so bruised and battered. I have a broken left wrist.

Please RSVP for Make a Blanket Day, April 24, 2010—space is limited and going fast. The theme for Make a Blanket Day is "Go Fly a Kite." Please remember to turn in your challenge quilts by the 31st of March.

What to bring for Make a Blanket Day:

1. 10-1/2 inch squares of transportation fabric—for every ten squares you bring you will be entered into a special drawing—they can be the same or different.

2. You will need a minimum of 48 two-inch squares, the brighter the better. We will display them on a table and you can pick and choose what you want to use.

3. You will need (12) 8-inch squares of very bright fabric. Again, we will display them on a table and you can pick and choose what you want to use.

4. You will need (12) 6-inch squares of very bright fabric. Again, we will display them on a table and you can pick and choose what you want to use.

No tip today and no picture—I've reached my limit for typing today.
