

What's New!

for the week of May 17th 2010

Today is a sew day at Quilting Sisters in Rocky Point.

Sorry I missed the update for last week—too many irons in the fire.

We shipped 17 blankets to TAP (Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors). Thanks to everyone who participated. The theme for July is Patriotic and we need to replenish our supply for the Snowball Express in December. If you are ever in doubt of what to make, Patriotic is always a good choice.

Our next big push is for larger (twin size) quilts for Camp Evergreen. This is a camp at Box R Ranch for children who have lost a loved one and is sponsored by Klamath Hospice. We usually need about 50 quilts for this camp. We also provide hotel-size toiletries for these children so if you have some to donate please let me know. We would need to receive everything no later than August 1st.

The Northwest Regional meeting is scheduled for September 17-19, 2010 in Portland. A registration form is attached and everyone who has turned in a blanket is welcome to attend.

Here are a few more pictures from Make a Blanket Day.

A close-up of the Shasta Lily Quilt Guild's raffle quilt.