

What's New!

for the week of May 31st 2010

The only sew days this summer will be the out-of-town locations. June 2nd at Mt. Shasta, June 4th in Medford, and June 25th at the Running Y.

There will be no sew day in Chiloquin in June because of their quilt show which will be held on June 26th and 27th, 10 am to 4 pm at the Chiloquin Community Center, 140 S 1st St.

Here is another reason why we do what we do:

Dear Project Linus Volunteer
(Blanket # 2009-3621)
I just wanted to let you know that a joy your handmade blanket has given my 4 year old daughter. She just got her blanket today and couldn't wait to sleep with it tonight. As she fell asleep
I thought of the love that came from the wonderful people from "Project Linus".
Thank you for taking the time to make such lovely blankets for so many children
that need them! ♥

This quilt came from Bonnie Fields and Betty Rodman of the Running Y Quilters—thanks ladies.

Have you started your blocks for the Elm Creek Quilters? Here is more information for you: <http://elmcreek.net/index.php/main/news/sarahs-twins-cast-your-vote/> I encourage you to make additional blocks for our chapter and we will have a get-together to assemble them.

I have a summer challenge for you. Everyday make one (1) Nine Patch Block using only your stash and any size you want. Later on I will give you some ideas for assembling the blocks. More updates will follow.
