

What's New!

for the week of June 21st 2010

Nine-Patch Project: Do you have 20 blocks completed and working on number 21? Just so you know—I have 6 completed and now playing catch-up. There will be special prizes for those who have 92 blocks completed on August 31, 2010.

Elm Creek Quilters: Have you started your blocks for the Elm Creek Quilters? Here is more information for you: <http://elmcreek.net/index.php/main/news/sarabs-twins-cast-your-vote/> I encourage you to make additional blocks for our chapter and we will have a get-together to assemble them.

Another Thank You:

I just wanted to thank you for the beautiful blanket that my daughter Tai-tum received from the Rogue Valley Medical Center NICU. We enjoy using the blanket every day. The blanket number that we received is 1568. Thanks so much!!
The Connick Family

Reminders: June 26th and 27th—Chiloquilters Quilt Show—we will be there both days.

Early-bird registration for Project Linus Western Region 2010 Conference must be postmarked by July 1, 2010. If you have turned in one (1) blanket you are eligible to attend.

Summer begins today—let's hope it knows Southern Oregon is on the planet and blesses us with some warmer weather. Enjoy the summer and be safe.
