

What's New!

for the week of July 12th 2010

This Week: July 17th - Rocky Point Summer Festival - we'll be there so stop by and say hello.

Camp Evergreen: The quilts for these campers should be width-of-fabric wide by 2 yards long. The children range in age from 8 to 18 and have lost a loved one recently. I will invite four people to ride with me to the Box R Ranch when we distribute these. If you are interested in going, please let me know.

Nine-Patch Project: Do you have 41 blocks completed and working on number 42? Please let me know as you complete them so I can have your prizes assembled. There will be special prizes for those who have 92 blocks completed on August 31, 2010.

Elm Creek Quilters: Have you started your blocks for the Elm Creek Quilters? Here is more information for you: <http://elmcreek.net/index.php/main/news/sarajs-twins-cast-your-vote/> I encourage you to make additional blocks for our chapter and we will have a get-together to assemble them.

Make a Difference Day: October 24th is the date and Klamath Community College is the place. Please remember you must pre-register in order to receive a kit. We had several people attend Make a Blanket Day that did not pre-register and thus we didn't have enough kits.

Tip of the Week: Clean out your bobbin area with Q-Tips. If you sew with cotton thread, the cotton lint will stick to the cotton Q-Tip.

Elizabeth Willy attended her first Make a Blanket Day this year and turned in this beautiful kite quilt. Welcome Elizabeth.
