

What's New!

for the week of August 2nd 2010

This Week: August 4th - Shadow Mtn. Mobile Home Park, Mt. Shasta
August 6th - Fountain Plaza in Medford

Camp Evergreen: The quilts for these campers should be width-of-fabric wide by 2 yards long. The children range in age from 8 to 18 and have lost a loved one recently. There are only two weeks before camp begins so please get these blankets in as soon as possible.

Nine-Patch Project: Do you have 62 blocks completed and working on number 63? Please let me know as you complete them so I can have your prizes assembled. There will be special prizes for those who have 92 blocks completed on August 31, 2010. One more person has completed all of the 92 blocks—good job Jessie Flanagan!

Elm Creek Quilters: Have you started your blocks for the Elm Creek Quilters? Here is more information for you: <http://elmcreek.net/index.php/main/news/sarahs-twins-cast-your-vote/> I encourage you to make additional blocks for our chapter and we will have a get-together to assemble them.

Make a Difference Day: October 23rd is the date and Klamath Community College is the place. Please remember you must pre-register in order to receive a kit. We had several people attend Make a Blanket Day that did not pre-register and thus we didn't have enough kits.

Tip of the Week: To make thread behave for appliqué or regular sewing - run your needle and thread through a fresh dryer sheet folded, and magic - no tangles or those tiny nasty knots.

The kite quilts are coming in fast and furious. If you took a kit, you must turn in your completed blanket by October 23, 2010. Linda Colahan is a charter blanket-er and always attends our Make a Blanket days.

If you made this blanket (or know who made it), please let me know.
