

What's New!

for the week of August 9th 2010

This Week: No scheduled sew days or events.

Camp Evergreen: The quilts for these campers should be width-of-fabric wide by 2 yards long. The children range in age from 8 to 18 and have lost a loved one recently. There is only one week until camp begins so please get these blankets in by August 13th. I still have room for one more passenger.

Nine-Patch Project: Do you have 69 blocks completed and working on number 70? Please let me know as you complete them so I can have your prizes assembled. There will be special prizes for those who have 92 blocks completed on August 31, 2010. Kathy Cloyd has completed 110 9-patches and has turned those into two quilts — more to come.

Elm Creek Quilters: Have you started your blocks for the Elm Creek Quilters? Here is more information for you: <http://elmcreek.net/index.php/main/news/sarahs-twins-cast-your-vote/> I encourage you to make additional blocks for our chapter and we will have a get-together to assemble them.

Make a Difference Day: October 23rd is the date and Klamath Community College is the place. Please remember you must pre-register in order to receive a kit. We had several people attend Make a Blanket Day that did not pre-register and thus we didn't have enough kits. Registrations are coming in daily—don't miss your chance.

Tip of the Week: Don't throw away all those old mouse pads. Put one or two under your sewing machine foot pedal and it will stay put.

This was the last blanket we received from Carol Wright before she passed away on August 4, 2010. Condolences may be sent to her daughter, Kasie Michel, 6479 Highway 238, Jacksonville, OR 97530.

Jessie Flanagan embroidered these beautiful dogs. I can see a youngster thrilled with this quilt. Nice job Jessie, and thanks for all you do for Project

I love this quilt and plan on making one just like it. Thanks to Polly Francis for the design and the blanket.
